

Meet Our School Board Members!

Greg Furwirth Chair

My name is Greg Fruhwirth and I am married to Barb (taught Kinder and 1st grade). We have 3 children (Brittany, Michael, and Justin) and 3 grandchildren. Gavin and Grahm both go to St. Joe's. Previously, I worked for 41 years in education as a Sped, 4th, and 6th-grade teacher. The last 15 years I spent working as an Elementary principal. I enjoy sports and coached Girls Basketball, Football, Track, and Baseball. My hobbies are running and trying to play golf. Presently, I work part-time at US Bank Stadium. Barb and I both enjoy being active in the church. and helping in any way we can. We love the St. Joe's community and how important education is to their family.

Mary Olson Enrollment Chair

Mary and her husband, Erik, live in Waconia and have been members of St. Joseph Catholic Community for 9 years. They have 4 children - 2 of them are currently students at St. Joseph School. Mary has been a member of the enrollment committee and a very active parent volunteer. She is passionate about St. Joseph's School. Mary is also a part of the Parish Pastoral Council and she is excited to serve the school in this new position.

J. Aaron Davis, ND Finance Chair

I am a naturopathic physician and founder of EveresT Men's Health in the Twin Cities focused on providing guidance to men to maintain or realize their best health throughout their life span. I am a loving husband to Christine and proud father of Maddox and Logan, two students in the St Joseph's student body. I am involved with the Finance Committee in the desire to assist the long-term health, growth, and prosperity of St Joseph Catholic School. During my time within the St Joseph's community, my gratitude and appreciation of St Joseph's has been overwhelming. My hope is to lend experience that may further the development of St Joseph's Catholic School as a Center of Excellence to continue to nurture the leaders of tomorrow.

Meet Our School Board Members!

Dr. David Sorkin Co- Vice-Chair

David and his wife, Kelly, along with their 2 sons, Aaron and Eli, live in Victoria. Aaron and Eli attend high school at Holy Family. David has served for more than 20 years in Catholic education beginning as a teacher at St. Agnes in St. Paul. He has served as a Dean of Students at Providence Academy, an Assistant Principal at Seton Catholic Prep in Chandler, AZ, and now serves as the Head of School at St. Hubert Catholic School in Chanhassen. In addition, David is a research fellow at Boston College's Roche Center for Catholic Education. He has also served as a national adjunct faculty within the Mary Ann Remick Leadership Program at the University of Notre Dame.