Ugly Christmas Sweater Contest
Book Version Rules

1. Take a sweater pattern home.
2. Decorate it in the style of your favorite book or character.
3. Use good taste in your design. Don't use the book title or character name in your design.
4. Put your name, grade, and book title or character name on the back of the sweater.

Examples of St. Ignatius' assumption of positive intent charism:

- Giving others the benefit of the doubt
- Loving one another even in times of conflict
- Clarifying instead of reacting
- Focusing on shared goals
- Facilitating thoughtful conversations
- Unifying instead of dividing
- Addressing hard conversations to get to the root of the concern expressed
- Being dedicated to working toward a positive outcome
- Avoiding judgment about someone's concerns
- Assuming someone meant to cause good, rather than harm
- Communicating clearly around hot topics to reduce assumptions
- Examining own conscious to hear what the Lord is addressing through the other person

Nominate Here

It's that time again! Notice someone assuming positive intent at your school? Nominate them for CSCOE's November/December Halo Award by Friday, December 16th!
